A WELCOME TO SPRING—Zena Ursuliak of Slocan Park choreographed this dance using traditional Ukrainian folk steps, which she learned as a child in Edmonton. She performed Saturday at the Vallican Whole Community Centre, at a benefit for IMAGES, the Kootenay Women's paper. "My dream is to get an ensemble together here," said Ursuliak. In April she will teach Ukrainian dancing to Vallican Whole School children, and will also begin an adult night class there. She'll perform again April 19 at a talent show in the Taghum Hall.
